48	King of Africa	kingdom		Azure three hearts 2 and 1 or.		This roll a unique source for these arms but pron derived from the Lord Marshal's roll of c.1310 no.25 king of Frise, azure 3 leaves arg.
49	King of Tunis Deseunes	kingdom	3:79	Gules a crescent moon or	XO 109	Dering says Tunis. with moon argent for the king of Stunes in Lord Marshal's roll of c.1310 no.21
50	King of Morocco	kingdom	2:259	Azure three chessrooks two and one or.		Found in a variety of rolls from Lord Marshal's roll of c.1310 no.14 onwards all with same tinctures.
51	Henry of Bolingbroke	peer		Qtly 1+4 France ancient 2+3 England over all a label dimidiated dexter ermine and sinister azure semy de lis or.		NB. name Duke of Bedford erroneously added but before Glover's day. These are not his arms but those of Henry of Bolingbroke
52	Edward Plantagenet earl of Rutland prior to his accession as duke of York in 1402	peer		Qtly 1+4 France ancient 2+3 England over all a label dimidiated dexter gules on each label point a castle Or and sinister argent, each label point charged with 3 bezants.		N.B name Duke of York erroneously added before Glover's Day. The bearer took his paternal arms on becoming duke
53	Earl of Huntingdon	peer		Gules 3 lions passant guardant in pale or within a border argent semy de lis or		Evidently drawn from a defective blazon the aure border becoming argent. John Holand earl of Huntindon from 1388 was executed in 1400. His only son John was restored to the title in 1417 but became duke of Exeter in 1444.
54	Earl of Kent	peer		Gules 3 lions passant guardant or in border argent

78	Earl of Gloucester	peer		Qtly 1+4 Or 3 chevrons gules (Clare) 2+3 Qtly argent and gules a fret or, over all a bendlet sable		Dispenser. This version has the normal quarterings reversed, which I believe was used only by the earl's widow Constance Plantagenet, and from her donation is in the Canterbury Cloister.
79	Earl of Kent and Wake	peer		Qtly 1+4 Argent 3 lions passant guardant in pale or, a border argent (Holand) 2+3 Or 2 bars and in chief 3 roundles gules, in the 1 st roundel a mullet argent for difference (Wake)		Edmund Holand the last earl of Kent and Lord Wake died in 1408. All the earls of Kent were also lords Wake, but they did not usually quarter their arms with Wake, and the cadency mark of the mullet is puzzling-not found elsewhere, and perhaps an error.
80	Anne countess of Pembroke	peer		Qtly 1+4 Brotherton as no.65 2+3 Hastings quartering Valence as no.69		Fascinating to have here the arms of a woman. She was Anne Mauny d.1384 daughter of Margaret Marshall, and granddaughter of Thomas of Brotherton, Anne's husband John Hastings, earl of Pembroke died in 1375.
81	Earl of March	peer		Qtly 1+4 Mortimer as no.55 2+3 Burgh as no.81		Mortimer

More likely Barrok is a variant spelling of Barnak, a Leics family. These were the arms of Sir John Bernak (d.1409) who was sheriff of Cambs 1406-7 . His father was Sir Wm B of Saxlingham Norf, Nhants etc living 1382 son of Wm de B of Sussex (d.1339) who bore these arms. Sir John's brother John B (d.1346) adopted the arms ermine a fess gules, for reasons that are unclear. For a pedigree see Trans Leics Arch Soc vol 13 p.146. In 1404 Sir John and his wife Ann Noon made a quitclaim in North Dalton Yorks, possessed by his ancestor Wm Bernak who was knighted at the feast of the swans in 1306 (see F/F Yorks and Knights of Edw I). Sir John's brother

						Robert B (who dsp before 1397) made a quitclaim by F/F to John B in Friskney, Lincs in 1374. Robert was definitely brother of Wm B (see IPM vol 9 no.573) They had a brother Hugh B, clerk whose brother and heir in Norf in 1342 was Wm B, age 36 (IPM vol 8 no 305)

697	Monins	Kent	3:95	Gu 3 cresc or in border engr arg		The head of the family John M (living 1419) bore the arms without a border and it must have been his son Thomas who bore the arms with a border. Thomas M was a king's esq of Hen IV until 1406 , and thereafter mayor of Dover.
698	Monins	Kent	3:95	Gu 3 cresc or in border engr erm		Nicholas M was a significant landowner near Dover in 1412, and his son John M sealed with 3 cresc in border engr in 1415. The family pedigree dictates that his arms must have been those with the border erm.

706	Stafford	Warwicks	2:460	Or on a chev gu betw 3 martlets sa a mullet sa.		Without the mullet Richard S 'of Salop' in Rich II County Roll and Edmund Stafford, clerk in Willement's Roll. Richard S was Richard Lord S of Clifton (d.1380) and bishop Edmund was his eldest son. Edmund's heir was his nephew Sir Thomas S (d.1425) of Warwicks, whose arms these must be. Thos'own father Thomas S d. bef 1398, and may have earlier held these arms.
707	Hilton (Hylton)		1:125	Arg LR gu		Also in two rolls temp Hen VI. Seals of Adam H and Maykin H dating 1440, and Hochequin H dating 1369, DBA 1:114. These individuals are found only in French contexts. Adam and Maykin were serving together in the English forces in Normandy betw 1430 and 1447, and Hochequin saw service in the previous century.
708	Charlton	Wales	1:155	Or LR gu charged with cresc arg		The presence of the crescent suggests that these would be the arms of Edward Lord Charlton KG d.1421 before he acceded to his brother John's peerage in 1401 . Both brothers died without issue. Another possibility is that these were the arms of William C, who might plausibly have been another brother, and was Chancellor of the Exchequer 1377-81 .
709	Everard	Norf ?	2:22	Az on bend arg 3 crosslets fitchy gu		Perhaps for Ralph E of Walpole in Norf who fl 1411-12. Alternatively these might be the arms of Alan E, see no. 710, in which case 710 would be the arms of Alan's nephew John E, a king's moneyer in 1428 and resident in London.

710	Everard	London	2:62	Az on bend arg 3 crosslets fitchy gu, a cresc gu for difference		These arms are in the Canterbury cloister and are postulated to be those of Alan E d.c.1426, a London mercer who served as sheriff of London 1415-16

The head of this family was Richard T d.1405 who also held in London. His son and heir Thos was age 9 in 1405. From his proof of age in 1444 his father's brother was Sir John T of Heron d.1437 who was a king's esquire of Rich II and Hen IV, sheriff of Essex and Herts 1413-14 and 1422-3 . His must be the arms differenced with an annulet. See Cal IPM, Morant Essex vol 1 p.227.

Arms of tomb of Richard C d.1490, esq of body of Hen VI at Croft, Yorks. Several Johns held Croft in this period, the last of whom, Sir John C d.1442 left a son and heir Richard d.1490. See VCH Yorks NR vol 1 pp.162-71. The differenced arms here evidently for a younger son, perhaps a cleric.
909	Broughton (Brouton)	Lancs	1:30	Arg 2 bars and on canton gu a cross arg	XF 703	Furness Coucher Book c 1412 names Richard de B, son of Simon B of Broughton-in-Furness, Lancs, and also Nicholas B
910	Haselwall (Mounstrell-error)	Chesh	3:4	Az a chief arg		County Roll of Rich II ascribes these arms to Wm de Haselwall (or Hassel) of Ches. He was named in a Chesh fine of 1408, DKR 36 p.223. The name crops up again in Chesh in 1437-8 see DKR 37 Ap 2 p.351. The ascription to Mounstrell who held the ams later confirms that the earlier labelling in Fenwick's Roll was not always contemporary with the originals.
911	Mompesson (Monpisson)	Norf	1:154	Arg LR sa charged with martlett or	XL 285	Writhe names Sir Jn M of Essex, the same arms for Sir Giles M in Parl Roll. Sir Giles M dspm. bef 1308 and was of Norf, but had lands in Essex. The only Sir Jn M known to be linked to Essex was temp Hen III (Morant Essex vol 1 p.142). The arms were used by the family in Wilts, the pedigrees headed by Robert M who lived temp Edw IV. The place of residence of the head of this family in this period remains undetermined- the martlet is sometimes called a finch (pinzon). Quite possibly the arms are historical in the context of this roll

912	Kirkby (Kyrkeby)	Lancs	1:30	Arg 2 bars and on canton gu a cross moline or	XC 121 XF 704	Alan and Alexander de K in Furness Coucher Book of c 1412. Richard de K in Willement's Roll. Family of Kirkby, Lancs A John Kirkby linked to Essex and Herts was Marshal of the Exchequer 1413-31. These might plausibly be the arms of John Kirkeby d.1353, bishop of Carlisle who was a beneficiary of William de Sandford's chantry in 1380. The bishop's family is known but he is supposed to have come from the north west.
913	Bentley (Bentele)	Devon	2:3	Arg on bend az 3 annulets or		Writhe names Thos B of Devon. These are perhaps the arms of Wm B of Plymouth who was various times mayor of that town, collector of customs in Devon 1419-23 and MP for Tavistock 1420.
914	Corbet	Salop Herts Suff Wilts	2:163	Or 2 corbies in pale sa		Piers C of Essex in Rich II County Roll and Robert C of Salop in the same.
